Mundoval Fund
Semi-Annual Report
June 30, 2019

Dear Shareholders,

For the six months ended June 30, 2019, the Mundoval Fund (the "Fund") returned 19.84% versus 16.98% for the MSCI World Index. Since the Fund's inception date of September 3, 2004, the annualized rate of return for the Mundoval Fund is 6.81% versus 7.24% for the MSCI World Index. Net assets under management in the Fund as of June 30, 2019 were $23.17 million. During the six-month period ended June 30, 2019, shares of Stericycle, Cigna Corp., Fox Corporation (distributed shares from The Walt Disney Company/21st Century Fox merger) and Allergan Plc were sold. New purchases during the same period included Biogen Inc. and Berkshire Hathaway Inc.

Positive factors impacting performance for the Fund during the six-month period ended June 30, 2019 included shares of Mastercard, LVMH Moët Hennessy Louis Vuitton, The Estée Lauder Companies, Anheuser Busch Inbev and Facebook. Negative factors impacting performance during the quarter included shares of Baidu and KDDI Corporation. As of June 30, 2019, the Mundoval Fund owned shares of common stock in 33 companies, of which 61.20% were domestic stocks, 34.07% were international stocks and 4.73% net cash.

The World's Central Banks, including the U.S. Federal Reserve, have loosened their stances on monetary policy as they attempt to thwart the potential of a global slowdown in economic growth. The interest paid on a U.S. 10 Year Treasury Bond has declined to 2% from 3% nine months ago, and represents the largest decline over the same period since 2011. Interest rates for 10 Year German government bonds, known as bunds, yield -0.32%, their lowest rate ever. A 40 Year Japanese Government bond yields approximately 0.37%, a remarkably low interest rate for such a long-dated bond.

As interest rates tumbled worldwide in the first half of 2019, common stocks continued to post solid gains despite mounting fears of a global economic slowdown. The Standard & Poor's 500 stock index returned 18.54% during the first six months of the year while the MSCI EAFE (Developed International Markets) and MSCI Emerging Markets returned 13.86% and 11.02% respectively. The strongest performing industry sectors in the S&P 500 Index during the first half of the year were Information Technology, Consumer Discretionary and Financials.

The Mundoval Fund benefited from its ownership of The Walt Disney Company and its recently completed merger of entertainment assets of 21st Century Fox. Mastercard exceeded profit and revenue expectations, as a surge in online shopping boosted transaction volumes, sending shares of the world's second largest payment processor to an all time high. The Estée Lauder Companies attributed strong demand for its cosmetics to 25% sales growth in Asia-Pacific, which includes China, allaying investor concerns of a potential slowdown in China's economy due current trade tensions with the United States.

Thank you for your business and continued support.

Expense Example (Unaudited)

Shareholders of the Fund incur ongoing expenses consisting solely of management fees. Although the Fund charges no sales loads or transaction fees, you will be assessed fees for outgoing wire transfers, returned checks and stop payment orders at prevailing rates charged by Mutual Shareholder Services, LLC, the Fund's transfer agent. IRA accounts will be charged an $8.00 annual maintenance fee. The following example is intended to help you understand your ongoing costs of investing in the Fund and to compare these costs with similar costs of investing in other mutual funds. The example is based on an investment of $1,000 invested in the Fund on January 1, 2019 and held through June 30, 2019.

Actual Expenses

The first line of the table below provides information about actual account values and actual expenses. In order to estimate the expenses a shareholder paid during the period covered by this report, shareholders can divide their account value by $1,000 (for example, an $8,600 account value divided by $1,000 = 8.6) and then multiply the result by the number in the first line under the heading entitled "Expenses Paid During the Period."

Hypothetical Example for Comparison Purposes

The second line of the table below provides information about hypothetical account values and hypothetical expenses based on the Fund's actual expense ratio and an assumed rate of return of 5% per year before expenses, which is not the Fund's actual return. The hypothetical account values and expenses may not be used to estimate the actual ending account balance or expenses paid by a shareholder for the period. Shareholders may use this information to compare the ongoing costs of investing in this Fund and other funds. To do so, compare this 5% hypothetical example with the 5% hypothetical examples that appear in other funds' shareholder reports.

Please note that the expenses shown in the table are meant to highlight your ongoing costs only and do not reflect any transactional costs, such as the charges assessed by Mutual Shareholder Services, LLC as described above. Therefore, the second line of the table is useful in comparing ongoing costs only, and will not help you determine the relative total costs of owning different funds. In addition, if these transactional costs were included, your costs would have been higher.

	Beginning Account Value January 1, 2019	Ending Account Value June 30, 2019	Expenses Paid During the Period* January 1, 2019 to June 30, 2019
Actual	$1,000.00	$1,198.39	$8.18
Hypothetical (5% annual return before expenses)	$1,000.00	$1,017.36	$7.50

- * Expenses are equal to the Fund's annualized expense ratio of 1.50%, multiplied by the average account value over the period, multiplied by 181/365 (to reflect the one-half year period ended June 30, 2019).

NOTES TO FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

MUNDOVAL FUND

June 30, 2019
(Unaudited)

1.) ORGANIZATION

The Mundoval Fund (the "Fund") is a diversified series of the Mundoval Funds (the "Trust"), an open-end management investment company. The Trust was organized in Ohio as a business trust on March 24, 2004 and may offer shares of beneficial interest in a number of separate series, each series representing a distinct fund with its own investment objectives and policies. The Fund commenced operations on September 3, 2004. The Fund's investment objective is long-term capital appreciation.

2.) SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The Fund is an investment company and accordingly follows the investment company accounting and reporting guidance of the Financial Accounting Standards Board ("FASB") Accounting Standards Codification Topic 946 Financial Services - Investment Companies. The financial statements are prepared in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America ("GAAP"). The Fund follows the significant accounting policies described in this section.

SECURITY VALUATION: All investments in securities are recorded at their estimated fair value, as described in Note 3.

SHARE VALUATION: The net asset value (the "NAV") is generally calculated as of the close of trading on the New York Stock Exchange (the "Exchange") (normally 4:00 p.m. Eastern time) every day the Exchange is open. The NAV is calculated by taking the total value of the Fund's assets, subtracting its liabilities, and then dividing by the total number of shares outstanding, rounded to the nearest cent. The offering price and redemption price per share are equal to the net asset value per share.

FEDERAL INCOME TAXES: The Fund's policy is to continue to comply with the requirements of the Internal Revenue Code that are applicable to regulated investment companies and to distribute all of its taxable income to shareholders. Therefore, no federal income tax provision is required. It is the Fund's policy to distribute annually, prior to the end of the calendar year, dividends sufficient to satisfy excise tax requirements of the Internal Revenue Code. This Internal Revenue Code requirement may cause an excess of distributions over the book year-end accumulated income. In addition, it is the Fund's policy to distribute annually, after the end of the fiscal year, any remaining net investment income and net realized capital gains.

The Fund recognizes the tax benefits of certain tax positions only where the position is "more likely than not" to be sustained assuming examination by tax authorities. Management has analyzed the Fund's tax positions, and has concluded that no liability for unrecognized tax benefits should be recorded related to uncertain tax positions taken on returns filed for open tax years. The Fund identifies its major tax jurisdictions as U.S. Federal and California tax authorities; however the Fund is not aware of any tax positions for which it is reasonably possible that the total amounts of unrecognized tax benefits will change materially in the next twelve months. The Fund recognizes interest and penalties, if any, related to unrecognized tax benefits as income tax expense in the Statement of Operations. During the six month period ended June 30, 2019, the Fund did not incur any interest or penalties.

DISTRIBUTIONS TO SHAREHOLDERS: Distributions to shareholders, which are determined in accordance with income tax regulations, are recorded on the ex-dividend date. The treatment for financial reporting purposes of distributions made to shareholders during the year from net investment income or net realized capital gains may differ from their ultimate treatment for federal income tax purposes. These differences are caused primarily by differences in the timing of the recognition of certain components of income, expenses or realized capital gain for federal income tax purposes. Where such differences are permanent in nature, they are reclassified in the components of the net assets based on their ultimate characterization for federal income tax purposes. Any such reclassifications will have no effect on net assets, results of operations or net asset values per share of the Fund.

USE OF ESTIMATES: The financial statements are prepared in accordance with GAAP, which requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amounts of increases and decreases in net assets from operations during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

OTHER: The Fund records security transactions based on trade date. Dividend income is recognized on the ex-dividend date. Interest income, if any, is recognized on an accrual basis. The Fund uses the specific identification method in computing gain or loss on sale of investment securities. Withholding taxes on foreign dividends have been provided for in accordance with the Fund's understanding of the applicable country's tax rules and regulations.

3.) SECURITY VALUATIONS

The Fund utilizes various methods to measure the fair value of most of its investments on a recurring basis. GAAP establishes a hierarchy that prioritizes inputs to valuation methods. The three levels of inputs are:

Level 1 – Unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets or liabilities that the Fund has the ability to access.

Level 2 – Observable inputs other than quoted prices included in level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly. These inputs may include quoted prices for the identical instrument in an inactive market, prices for similar instruments, interest rates, prepayment speeds, credit risk, yield curves, default rates and similar data.

Level 3 – Unobservable inputs for the asset or liability, to the extent relevant observable inputs are not available, representing the Fund's own assumptions about the assumptions a market participant would use in valuing the asset or liability, and would be based on the best information available.

The availability of observable inputs can vary from security to security and is affected by a wide variety of factors, including, for example, the type of security, whether the security is new and not yet established in the marketplace, the liquidity of markets, and other characteristics particular to the security. To the extent that valuation is based on models or inputs that are less observable or unobservable in the market, the determination of fair value requires more judgment. Accordingly, the degree of judgment exercised in determining fair value is greatest for instruments categorized in level 3.

The inputs used to measure fair value may fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy. In such cases, for disclosure purposes, the level in the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurement falls in its entirety, is determined based on the lowest level input that is significant to the fair value measurement in its entirety.

FAIR VALUE MEASUREMENTS

A description of the valuation techniques applied to the Fund's major categories of assets measured at fair value on a recurring basis follows.

Equity securities (common stocks, including ADRs). Equity securities generally are valued by using market quotations, but may be valued on the basis of prices furnished by a pricing service when the Adviser believes such prices accurately reflect the fair value of such securities. Securities that are traded on any stock exchange or on the NASDAQ over-the-counter market are generally valued by the pricing service at the last quoted sale price. Lacking a last sale price, an equity security is generally valued by the pricing service at its last bid price. Generally, if the security is traded in an active market and is valued at the last sale price, the security is categorized as a level 1 security, and if an equity security is valued by the pricing service at its last bid, it is generally categorized as a level 2 security. When market quotations are not readily available, when the Adviser determines that the market quotation or the price provided by the pricing service does not accurately reflect the current fair value, or when restricted securities are being valued, such securities are valued as determined in good faith by the Adviser, subject to review of the Board of Trustees (the "Trustees" or the "Board") and are categorized in level 2 or level 3, when appropriate.

Money market funds. Money market funds are valued at net asset value provided by the funds and are classified in level 1 of the fair value hierarchy.

In accordance with the Trust's good faith pricing guidelines, the Adviser is required to consider all appropriate factors relevant to the value of securities for which it has determined other pricing sources are not available or reliable as described above. There is no single standard for determining fair value, since fair value depends upon the circumstances of each individual case. As a general principle, the current fair value of an issue of securities being valued by the Adviser would appear to be the amount which the owner might reasonably expect to receive for them upon their current sale. Methods which are in accordance with this principle may, for example, be based on (i) a multiple of earnings; (ii) a discount from market of a similar freely traded security (including a derivative security or a basket of securities traded on other markets, exchanges or among dealers); or (iii) yield to maturity with respect to debt issues, or a combination of these and other methods.

The following table summarizes the inputs used to value the Fund's assets measured at fair value as of June 30, 2019:

Valuation Inputs of Assets	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total

The Fee Waiver will automatically terminate on April 30, 2020 unless it is renewed by the Adviser. The Adviser may not terminate the Fee Waiver before April 30, 2020. ### APPROVAL OF INVESTMENT ADVISORY AGREEMENT

On February 12, 2019, the Board of Trustees (the "Trustees" or the "Board") for the Mundoval Fund (the "Fund") met to consider the renewal of the Management Agreement (the "Agreement") between the Trust and the Adviser, on behalf of the Fund. Legal Counsel reviewed the memorandum provided, including the factors that the Board should evaluate in considering the continuance of the Agreement. Legal Counsel further explained that, in consideration of the continuance of the Agreement, the Board should review as much information as is reasonably necessary to evaluate the terms of the Agreement and determine whether it is fair to the Fund and its shareholders. Legal Counsel also explained that the Adviser has provided information to the Trustees necessary for evaluation of the continuance of the Agreement.

In reviewing the Agreement, the Board of Trustees received and reviewed materials from the Adviser addressing the following factors: (i) the investment performance of the Fund and the investment adviser; (ii) the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the investment adviser to the Fund; (iii) the cost of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by the Adviser and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund; (iv) the extent to which economies of scale will be realized as the Fund grows; and (v) whether the fee levels reflect these economies of scale to the benefit of shareholders.

The Board met with representatives of the Adviser to discuss the terms of the Agreement. The Board reviewed the history of the Adviser, including background and investment management experience, as well as the Fund's performance for various periods thru December 31, 2018, important factors relating to the Fund's performance, the Adviser's investment and research strategy, the Adviser's strength, and expected expenses and revenue from the Fund.

The Board gave careful consideration to factors deemed relevant to the Trust and the Fund as well as the nature, extent and quality of the services to be provided by the Adviser and the performance of the Fund since commencement of operations. The Trustees analyzed the Adviser's experience and the capabilities of the portfolio manager. The Trustees reviewed and discussed the Adviser's Form ADV, internal compliance policies and financial statements. The Trustees also compared the Fund's management fee and total annual operating expenses with those of comparable funds.

As to the performance of the Fund, the Trustees reviewed the materials from the Adviser, which included information regarding the Fund's performance compared to a peer group of similar funds and the world stock category average. The Trustees reviewed materials showing specific returns comparing the Fund to its peer group, its benchmark index, and category average for the 1-year, 5-year, 10-year and since inception (September 3, 2004) periods ended December 31, 2018. The Trustees noted that (i) for the 1-year period ended December 31, 2018, the Fund outperformed the MSCI World Index and world stock category, and underperformed the peer group; (ii) for the 5-year annualized period ended December 31, 2018, the Fund underperformed the peer group, world stock category and the MSCI World Index; (iii) for the 10-year annualized period ended December 31, 2018, the Fund underperformed the world stock category, the peer group and the MSCI World Index; and (iv) the Fund trailed the Index's performance since inception. The Trustees noted that the Fund's short-term comparative performance had improved and that its long-term performance was relatively comparative overall. The Trustees noted that for each period reported the Fund's performance was within the range of its peer group and the world stock category funds performances. The Trustees understood the sources of the outperformance and underperformance over various periods and were satisfied with the Adviser's management of the Fund. The Trustees then reviewed the performance of other accounts managed by the Adviser with a comparable mandate.

As to the nature, extent and quality of the services provided by the Adviser, the Trustees analyzed the Adviser's experience and capabilities. Representatives of the Adviser summarized the information provided to the Board. The Trustees discussed the Adviser's financial condition, the portfolio manager's background and investment management experience. The Board noted that there were no changes in the personnel managing the Fund or in the business or organization of the Adviser. The representatives of the Adviser reviewed and discussed the Adviser's ADV and the 17j-1 certifications with the Board. Representatives of the Adviser also discussed the Adviser's financial stability. After reviewing the foregoing and further information from the Adviser, the Board concluded that the quality, extent, and nature of the services being provided by the Adviser were satisfactory and adequate and believes that the Adviser has the resources to meet its obligations under the Agreement. They noted that the Adviser continued to provide excellent portfolio management and compliance services.

As to the cost of the services to be provided and the profits to be realized by the Adviser and its affiliates from the relationship with the Fund, it was noted that the Adviser is paying substantially all operating expenses of the Fund. Additionally, the Trustees considered that the Adviser provides the Fund with officers, including the CCO, marketing support and office space. Representatives of the Adviser reviewed a summary of the Adviser's profitability resulting from the services provided to the Fund for the period since the last renewal. The analysis showed the net profits from portfolio advisory services as well as the overall slight profit related to the Fund. The Trustees also compared the Fund's management fee and total annual operating expenses with those of comparable funds. The Board noted that overall, the Adviser was properly incentivized to continue to provide robust services.

Turning to the level of the management fee, the Trustees were presented with a comparative analysis of advisory fees and expense ratios based on publicly available data and drawn from the world stock category and the Fund's peer group, including a comparison of funds with similar asset ranges. It was noted that while the Adviser's management fee was the highest in the peer group and at the high end of the world stock category, the Adviser is responsible under the Agreement for paying all but a very small fraction of the Fund's expenses out of the management fee. The Board noted that the effective net management fee after payment of direct expenses was reasonable. The Trustees further noted that the Fund is within the range of the world stock category and peer group for annual report net expense ratio and prospectus net expense ratio. Finally, the Trustees reviewed information regarding fees charged by the Adviser for other comparable accounts. The Board reviewed the fees paid to the Adviser for separately managed accounts. It was noted that the fee was less than that charged to the Fund. However, it was noted that the Adviser does not provide the same comprehensive level of services to separate accounts as is provided to the Fund. Furthermore, the Board noted that the effective management fee rate after the Adviser pays expenses for the Fund was acceptable. Having considered the comparative data as described above, the Trustees concluded that the management fee and expense ratio were reasonable.

As for potential economies of scale, the Trustees discussed and considered information regarding whether there have been economies of scale with respect to the management of the Fund, whether the Fund has appropriately benefited from any economies of scale, and whether there is potential for realization of any further economies of scale. The Trustees noted that the Adviser voluntarily agreed to waive a portion of its management fee so that the management fee, on an annual basis, does not exceed (i) 1.25% of the Fund's average daily net assets greater than $25 million and up to and including $75 million, and (ii) 1.00% of the Fund's average daily net assets greater than $75 million through April 30, 2019. A representative of the Adviser noted that he anticipates extending the waiver through April 30, 2020. The Trustees concluded that breakpoints were unnecessary because of the expense limitation agreement voluntarily entered into by the Adviser.

Next, the Independent Trustees met in executive session to discuss the continuation of the Agreement. The officers of the Trust were excused during this discussion.

Upon reconvening the meeting, the Trustees reported that after further consideration, they were satisfied with that the Adviser was taking appropriate steps to address the performance of the Fund. They concluded that the nature and extent of services provided by the Adviser were consistent with the Board's expectations. The Trustees also concluded that the Adviser has sufficient resources and had provided quality advisory services to the Fund. The Board agreed that the fees in the Agreement were reasonable and that the Adviser profitability was acceptable. The Trustees agreed that economies of scale will benefit shareholders as the Fund grows. Therefore, it was the consensus of the Trustees, including the Independent Trustees, that renewal of the Management Agreement would be in the best interests of the Fund and its shareholders.
